This union school, as managed by Miss Elliott, is one of the best ungraded country schools to be found in this vicinity. Eleven different scholars came from Mason and eight from Greenville during the year. Mason paid 55 per cent and Greenville 45 per cent of the cost of maintaining the school. The books for the Mason scholars were purchased and are now owned by the town of Mason.

SOUTH SCHOOL:

Teacher, Minnie A. Blood.

	1st Term.	2d Term.
Number of weeks	12	16
Whole number of scholars	II	13
Average number belonging to school	ΙI	10
Average daily attendance	9	8

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography, History, Book-keeping. This little school with 14 different names on its register during its 28 weeks duration had 82 cases of tardiness, 194 cases of dismissal, 420 non-membership half-day absences and 584 other half-day absences. No school can be completely successful under such circumstances, yet good progress was made in many of the branches.

The south school-house has been thoroughly repaired; much of it being made new and new furniture put in throughout so the school-room is now the most comfortable one in town. These repairs and new furniture have cost $319.19.

One side of the east school-house has been shingled and sundry repairs made at a cost shown elsewhere. The other side of the school-house and all of the shed need to be shingled this coming season.

A new platform has been built in front of the village school-house, some grading done, foundation repaired etc. as shown by the cost in the treasurer's report.

All school books and school supplies have been purchased as far as possible at first hands and the bills for the same paid by the selectmen. Cupboards with locks have been put into each school-room for the purpose of holding these supplies. School books are loaned to the pupil. Each book is numbered and a record kept so that any loss or damage can be traced.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for one term: Annie Ames, Lilla Ames, Eva Blodgett, Hattie Robbins, Cora Stone, Charles Cowdrey, Beatrice Taft, Fred Pierce, Celia Belanger, Nettie Furbush, George Cowdrey, Winifred Taft, Ethel Pierce, Eugenia Dodge, Nina Doonan, Herbert Doonan, Ella Russell, Merton Sanborn, Orren Eaton, Tracy Eaton, Flora Goddard.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for two terms: Ada Beaton, Charlie Douglass, Irving Hodgman, Fred Reed, Frank Doonan, George Doonan, Elmer Russell.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for three terms: Emma Ames, Jennie Blodgett, Robert Douglass, Adrian Hall, Eddie Lynch, Charlie Reed.

Ida Ames has a perfect attendance record for two years.

Josie Conley has not had a mark against her name in the attendance record for nine years—all the time she has attended school. Where is the scholar that can equal that?

We recommend the usual appropriation of $1200.

Respectfully submitted,

F. B. HEALD, C. E. HALL, WM. C. GREENE,

School Board of Greenville.
